Coopersale Chronicle

This newsletter has been published by the Coopersale Social Institute Committee in response to a number of complaints that residents of Coopersale do not know about many activities which are available in the village.

It has been published since June 2001 and has appeared quarterly (with some additional special editions). It is compiled and edited by Chris Hoare, who will be unable to continue.

Unless a volunteer comes forward to take on the role of editor, the Coopersale Chronicle will stop sometime next year.

Coopersale Horticultural Society

Last week's Summer Show was an enjoyable and successful event with all kinds of vegetables, handicraft and domestic items on display. Although the number of people putting in entries was lower than usual and there were fewer exhibits to marvel at, attendance at the show was higher than expected. The raffle and tombola stalls were very popular and the teas with home-made cake went down a treat! It would be good to have more exhibitors and more interest shown by people in the village and we look forward to welcoming new faces in the future. Our next meeting is on Monday 20th October, so look out for the posters beforehand and also make a note in your diaries about the AGM on Monday 1st December, when we celebrate the Society's achievements with a tasty mince pie and a relaxing glass of wine!

Group 2000

Hello to everybody.

Well, here we are into the final few months of the year, hope you've all bought your xmas cards, had plenty of time after all, they've been in the shops for about two months!!!

There was no meeting in August.

In order to get ready for the oncoming traumas of the festive season and raise your energy levels, we have a Zumba session in September which should be great fun (for those taking part and even more so for those watching!)

In October we have Hannah Shine coming along to give what I am sure will be a very interesting talk, "Health at your fingertips".

November is games night, don't know what games but there's sure to be a lot of laughter.

December will be "ladies that dine"!

As I am sure you all know by now, we meet on the third Wednesday of the month at 8pm.

Situation Vacant

Would you like to do something for the community?

The Coopersale Social Institute Committee has to appoint a new treasurer. Basic book keeping knowledge is required and some experience of Excel (or similar spreadsheet) would be an advantage.

Anyone interested should contact Chris Hoare 01992 572568 or treasurer@coopersale.org.uk or any other member of the Institute committee.

What's on at Your Church?

At the end of September, Bob Taylor, our minister at St Alban's celebrates 25 years of ministry in the Church of England. We will be celebrating this at St Alban's on 28th September with a special Eucharist at 11.10 a.m. and on 5th October with the other churches in the Epping District Team at 5 p.m. in St John the Baptist, Epping.

St Alban's recently welcomed Revd Jonathan McNeaney as the new curate in the Epping Team. You will no doubt be seeing more of Jonathan around Coopersale over the coming months as he works amongst us.

On Sunday, 19th October we will be celebrating our Harvest Festival at 11.10 a.m. Why not join us to thank God for the bounty around us. All the Harvest gifts are being given to the Harlow Food Bank, if already in tins and packets, and the perishable produce will be sold and the money donated there as well.

Remembrance Sunday is on Sunday, 9th November and at 10.50 a.m. we will be remembering those who have died in conflicts over the past hundred years to maintain our freedom and giving thanks for those who returned.

On the first Wednesday of each month there is "Tea @3" in the Parish Room at 3 p.m., opposite the Church, for those whom our American cousins would call "Golden Agers". Why not come and join us?
